

Toff's World...

All the big cats, including lions and tigers, react to catnip just the way our little cats do. In fact, some zoos give their big cats catnip as part of a general program of environmental enrichment.

Toff's World...

A Spanish stamp commemorating Charles Lindbergh's record-breaking flight from New York to Paris showed his cat Patsy watching as his plane took off. Patsy often accompanied Lindbergh on his flights, but did not go on the 1930 flight that made him famous.

Toff's World...

The largest litter of kittens on record was born to a Siamese-Burmese mother, who had 19 kittens.

Toff's World...

Big cats can roar, but they cannot continuously purr. Small cats can purr, but they cannot roar.
